A simple breakdown of the different kinds of lawsuits we need to file

1. Personal Injury Tort (Punitive Damage & Actual Damages) – Against the US Gov, US Military for illegal wiretap, invasion of privacy, intent to cause distress, economic espionage, and unfair advantage as my competitors
2. Lawsuits (Punitive & Statutory Damages) - against private corps, citizens for economic espionage, invasion of privacy, intent to cause distress, unfair advantage as my competitors, anti-competitive tactics, anti-trust violations, cyber stalking, aiding & abetting stalking. These can be broken up in to individual suits or combined based on what you think would be best as my legal counsel.
3. Lawsuits (All Profits, All Damages, Removal of IP) - against private corps, citizens for copyright infringement, and fraud to create a tainted release date timeline, aka fraudulent dates on your videos, etc to make it look as though you came up with it first. (I will register my IP with the copyright office prior to filling)
4. Personal Injury Tort (Punitive Damages) – Against JCSO for medical malpractice, deprivation of my rights, aiding and abetting crimes against me, obstruction, discrimination
5. Personal Injury Tort (Punitive Damages) - against the US Military for Invasion of privacy (Infrared & Espionage), use of weapons of war on a civilian (microwave), and psywar used on a civilian non-combatant
6. Lawsuit (All Damages, You can keep the content after payment) - against the US Military for copyright infringement, economic espionage, fraud to taint the release date timeline.
